Junior Dream Team New Membership Application Form

JDT Determination & Commitment

It takes a tremendous amount of commitment to remain competitive on the National and International level. As a member of the JDT, you must be totally committed to excellence and continuing to learn, grow and improve. You do this not only as an individual JDT member and competitor, but as a team as well. It must be that you are determined to be the best in the world, not just the best in the United States. The following is the minimum commitment that a potential JDT Archer must display:

- Attend at least three of the JOAD, Jr. USAT ranking tournaments.
- Attend Jr. World trials if you are competing in a class that is participating in the Jr. World Championships.
- Attend 2 JDT camps per calendar year and not miss two consecutive camps unless specifically approved beforehand.
- Show continuing technical progress in your shooting form.
- Show continuing improvement in the ability to self-coach.
- Show physical progress from camp to camp using the Beep Test or the fitness test results.
- Be able to demonstrate and explain the National Coaching System before a group.
- Be a team player.
- Participate in all JDT camp activities unless injured.
- Display exemplary sportsmanship and respect to others at all times.
- Maintain contact with assigned JDT coach between camps by email, phone, Skype or video.
- Submit JDT Home Log Book weekly to Coach Lee and assigned JDT Coach.
- Always follow JDT Code of Conduct.
