Varsity Assistant/JV Field Hockey Coach

Episcopal High School in Bellaire, Texas (just outside of Houston) is looking for a knowledgeable field hockey coach to lead it's JV team and assist the varsity team for the Fall of 2012. Responsibilities Include: Assisting the head coach in the development and supervision of the field hockey program, assistance with individual skill training, planning and coordination of practices and games, and compliance with Southwest Preparatory rules and regulations. Candidates must be available to attend all practices and both home and away games. Ideal candidates should have a passion for the sport, the ability to effectively communicate with athletes and parents, flexibility, strong organizational skills, a positive attitude and high energy, and the desire to work with enthusiastic and dedicated young female athletes. Playing and coaching experience is preferred.

Additional opportunities to earn income include coaching in the Texas Pride FHC.

Episcopal High School is an institution of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas, established for the purpose of providing a superior education in preparation for college and a significant life thereafter. Through a rich offering of academic, spiritual, artistic, and athletic programs, the School provides an opportunity for each student to reach his or her maximum spiritual, intellectual, social, and ethical potential. EHS teaching philosophy emphasizes understanding and responding to the individual needs and capabilities of each student. In an effort to reflect the community we serve, EHS strives to maintain a student body that represents social, economic, ethnic, and academic diversity.

Interested candidates should contact Jess McClain at jmcclain@ehshouston.org.