Rule 2.1 – Eligibility Code Compliance
(Advertising Restrictions Provisions Highlighted)

Section 2. General rules and principles for participation in the Paralympic Games

2.1 Eligibility Code Compliance

To be eligible for participation in the Paralympic Games an individual must comply with, observe and abide by the rules of IPC. Every competitor, team official and Games official shall observe, comply and abide by the rules and regulations outlined on the IPC Eligibility Code and shall sign off the IPC Eligibility Form.

All competitors, coaches, trainers or other team officials must comply with all provisions of the IPC Eligibility Code including - but not limited – to:

- Respect the spirit of fair play and non-violence and behave accordingly.
- Respect and comply with all the procedures and policies outlined in the IPC Classification Code and IPC Anti-Doping Code, while co-operating on these issues with the authorized officials.
- Refrain from advertising during the Paralympic Games with his/her person, name, picture or sports performance.
- Not accept any payment or other material gain or consideration for participation in the Paralympic Games.
- Not allow commercial exploitation of his/her image, name and/or performance without prior approval from IPC.
- Abide by rules and regulations related to clothing and equipment.
- Accept sport technical supreme authority of the respective IPSF and of IPC.
- Accept binding arbitration of the Court of Arbitration (CAS) for matters not related to sport technical rules.
