Marketing Manager

Would you enjoy working in a fast-paced, dynamic nonprofit with the opportunity to make an extraordinary difference? Join Disabled Sports USA, an expanding, thriving charity dedicated to the life-changing power of sports for youth and adults with disabilities!

Disabled Sports USA, a Member of the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Committee and a national leader in sports and recreation for individuals with disabilities, seeks an experienced Marketing Manager for a full time, salaried position in Rockville, Maryland. This new position will lead our national marketing and branding efforts to strengthen engagement with stakeholders and increase social impact.

Disabled Sports USA seeks a highly motivated Marketing Manager ready to drive marketing and branding to achieve long-term objectives, strengthen organizational identity and increase stakeholder engagement among youth and adults with disabilities, coaches, teachers, volunteers, sponsors, donors, community groups and other stakeholders throughout the U.S. As the organization’s chief brand ambassador, the Marketing Manager will lead the effort to bring the brand to life and ensure all marketing and communications are on-brand and on-message.

Founded in 1967, Disabled Sports USA provides adaptive sports opportunities through 140 community-based chapters serving more than 70,000 youth and adults with disabilities in 40 states. Disabled Sports USA offers a highly collaborative workplace, a commitment to professional development and a compelling vision that everyone, regardless of ability, has access to sports and recreation in their community.

Responsibilities include:

- Lead Disabled Sports USA’s marketing and branding development and strategy, ensuring consistent and engaging look, feel, tone and messaging
- Establishing and monitoring brand guidelines
- Develop and ensure consistent messaging across communication channels
- Shape and manage a long-term marketing plan to expand awareness of Disabled Sports USA’s programs
- Oversee design of various organizational and program marketing materials
- Develop tools and processes for internal and external stakeholders to ensure branding and marketing is clear, consistent and cohesive
- Analyze and apply trends and best practices in nonprofit marketing and branding
- Conduct, gather and analyze research to inform marketing and branding decisions
- Develop and implement new marketing outreach strategies
- Implement and report measurements of marketing effectiveness
- Develop a strong understanding of the attitudes and opinions of key stakeholders, including participants, volunteers, chapter staff and the general public
