

USOC BIOGRAPHY

CHRIS SNYDER

Director of Coaching Education

Chris Snyder is the director of coaching education for the United States Olympic Committee. In his current role, Snyder focuses on supporting the USOC sport performance department and Team USA coaches. His responsibilities include discovering and providing resources to enhance sport culture and the National Governing Bodies that service sport in the United States.

Previously, Snyder served as the manager of coaching education and training for U.S. Lacrosse in Baltimore. He has coached competitive sports for more than 12 years.

He currently lives in Colorado Springs, Colo., with his wife, Samantha.

