

2018 U.S. Olympic Team by the Numbers

Team USA by the Numbers

Olympic Program

- Sports: 7
- Disciplines: 15
- Medal events: 102 – Team USA will compete in 97
- New events: alpine skiing team event, mixed doubles curling, men's and women's snowboarding big air, men's and women's long track speedskating mass start
- NBC Coverage: 2,400+ hours – most ever for an Olympic Winter Games
 - NBC, NBCSN, CNBC, USA Network, the Olympic Channel: Home of Team USA, NBCOlympics.com, the NBC Sports app

General Overview

- Athletes: 244 – the largest athlete delegation in Olympic Winter Games history
- Youngest: 17 – Vincent Zhou (figure skating)
- Oldest: 39 – Brian Gionta (ice hockey)
- Average age: 26.5
- Females: 109
- Males: 135
- Tallest: 6'7" – Bryce Bennett (alpine skiing)
- Shortest: 5'0" – Karen Chen (figure skating); Jessica Kooreman (short track speedskating)
- States represented (by hometown): 31
 - Leading states: Colorado (31), California (22), Minnesota (20), New York (19), Utah (16)
 - Leading cities: Park City, Utah (8); Steamboat Springs, Colorado (6); Anchorage, Alaska (5); Duluth, Minnesota (5)
- Team USA medals to date: 284
 - Gold medals to date: 96

Olympic Experience

- Returning Olympians: 103
- Five-time Olympians: 3
 - Kelly Clark (snowboarding – 2002, 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Kikkan Randall (cross-country skiing – 2002, 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Clark and Randall become the first female five-time U.S. Olympians at the Winter Games
 - Shani Davis (long track speedskating – 2002, 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Becomes first U.S. speedskater to compete in five Olympics
- Four-time Olympians: 12
 - Lowell Bailey (biathlon – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Tim Burke (biathlon – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Stacey Cook (alpine skiing – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Erin Hamlin (luge – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Lindsey Jacobellis (snowboarding – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Ted Ligety (alpine skiing – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Andy Newell (cross-country skiing – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Steven Nyman (alpine skiing – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - John Shuster (curling – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Katie Uhlaender (skeleton – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
 - Lindsey Vonn (alpine skiing – 2002, 2006, 2010, 2018)
 - Shaun White (snowboarding – 2006, 2010, 2014, 2018)
- Three-time Olympians: 28
- Two-time Olympians: 60

- Olympic medalists: 37
- Four-time Olympic medalists: 1
 - Shani Davis, long track speedskating (two golds, two silvers)
 - Most decorated male athlete
- Three-time Olympic medalists: 2
 - Kelly Clark, snowboarding (one gold, two bronzes)
 - Most decorated female athlete
 - J.R. Celski, short track speedskating (one silver, two bronzes)
- Two-time Olympic medalists: 12
 - Kacey Bellamy, ice hockey (two silvers)
 - Meghan Duggan, ice hockey (two silvers)
 - Hilary Knight, ice hockey (two silvers)
 - Jocelyne Lamoureux-Davidson, ice hockey (two silvers)
 - Monique Lamoureux-Morando, ice hockey (two silvers)
 - Steve Langton, bobsled (two bronzes)
 - Ted Ligety, alpine skiing (two golds)
 - Gigi Marvin, ice hockey (two silvers)
 - Elana Meyers Taylor, bobsled (one silver, one bronze)
 - Lindsey Vonn, alpine skiing (one silver, one bronze)
 - Andrew Weibrecht, alpine skiing (one silver, one bronze)
 - Shaun White, snowboarding (two golds)
- Olympic champions: 10
 - Looking to defend titles from Sochi: 5
 - Jamie Anderson (snowboarding, slopestyle)
 - Maddie Bowman (freestyle skiing, halfpipe)
 - Ted Ligety (alpine skiing, giant slalom)
 - Mikaela Shiffrin (alpine skiing, slalom)
 - David Wise (freestyle skiing, halfpipe)

World Championships and Youth Olympic Experience

- Reigning world champions: 30
- Reigning world medalists: 46
- Youth Olympic Games athletes: 16 (most ever on a U.S. Olympic Team)
 - Codie Bascue (bobsled, 2012)
 - Aaron Blunck (freestyle skiing, 2012)
 - Summer Britcher (luge, 2012)
 - Patrick Caldwell (cross-country skiing, 2012)
 - Sean Doherty (biathlon, 2012)
 - Ben Ferguson (snowboarding, 2012)
 - Arielle Gold (snowboarding, 2012)
 - Alex Hall (freestyle skiing, 2016)
 - Thomas Hong (short track speedskating, 2012)
 - Chloe Kim (snowboarding, 2016)
 - Hailey Langland (snowboarding, 2016)
 - Casey Larson (ski jumping, 2016)
 - Ben Loomis (Nordic combined, 2016)
 - Jake Pates (snowboarding, 2016)
 - Will Rhoads (ski jumping, 2012)
 - Tucker West (luge, 2012)
- Youth Olympic Games medals: 15
 - Medalists: 11
 - Gold medalists: 5
 - Summer Britcher, luge (team relay – 2012)
 - Ben Ferguson, snowboarding (halfpipe – 2012)
 - Chloe Kim, snowboarding (halfpipe, slopestyle – 2016)
 - Jake Pates, snowboarding (halfpipe, slopestyle – 2016)
 - Tucker West, luge (team relay – 2012)

Other Facts

- Mothers: 1
 - Kikkan Randall (cross-country skiing)
- Fathers: 20
- Siblings: 7 pairs
 - Erik and Sadie Bjornsen (cross-country skiing)
 - Bryan and Taylor Fletcher (Nordic combined)
 - Becca and Matt Hamilton (curling)
 - Logan and Reese Hanneman (cross-country skiing)
 - Jocelyne Lamoureux-Davidson and Monique Lamoureux-Morando (ice hockey) – twins
 - Caitlin and Scott Patterson (cross-country skiing)
 - Alex and Maia Shibutani (figure skating)
- Married couples: 1
 - Chris Knierim and Alexa Scimeca Knierim (figure skating, pairs) – first since 2006
- Family with Olympic ties: 36
 - Parents competed in Olympics: 7
- Most diverse U.S. winter team on record
 - African American athletes: 10
 - Maame Biney and Erin Jackson become the first female African-American speedskaters
 - Jordan Greenway becomes the first African-American on an ice hockey team
 - Asian American athletes: 11
 - Openly gay athletes: 2
 - Gus Kenworthy (freestyle skiing)
 - Adam Rippon (figure skating)
 - Kenworthy and Rippon become first openly gay athletes to represent Team USA at the Winter Games
- College attendance: 76%
 - Number of schools: 87
 - Collegiate athletes: More than one third
 - Prominent sports: bobsled, cross-country skiing, ice hockey
- Athletes in the U.S. Army's World Class Athlete Program: 7
 - Nick Cunningham (bobsled)
 - Chris Folt (bobsled)
 - Taylor Morris (luge)
 - Matt Mortensen (luge)
 - Justin Olsen (bobsled)
 - Emily Sweeney (luge)
 - Nathan Weber (bobsled)
- Speak a foreign language: 38
 - Languages: Czech, Dutch/Afrikaans, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Mandarin, Norwegian, Russian, Spanish, Swedish
 - Speak Korean: Clare Egan (biathlon); Thomas Hong (short track speedskating); Chloe Kim (snowboarding)