

Regional Junior Dream Team Application Criteria

The application criteria for the Regional Dream Team (RDT) describes the process that is used to select archers for membership. RDT is composed of 30 archers per region.

To become a candidate-for-consideration, you must:

1. Be a minimum of 12, maximum of 18 years of age at time of application and a current member of USA Archery. NOTE: Archers 14 and younger (unaccompanied minor as defined by airlines) require a parent or designated representative approved by RDT staff to attend camp.
2. Be open to learning and using the National Training System (NTS).
3. Fill out the RDT Application form.
4. Read the RDT Determination and Commitment Memo and sign (archer and his or her parent or legal guardian).
5. Submit a positive letter of recommendation from Personal Coach.
6. Thoughtfully complete Reason for Applying to RDT (on application)
7. Coach's Evaluation
8. After attending one camp, archers who wish to continue to be part of RDT will be expected to score well according to the following criteria:

Teamwork	1-5 points
Progress at Camp	1-5 points
Motivation	1-5 points
Work Ethic	1-10 points
Grasp of National Training System	1-10 points
Potential	1-10 points
Maintain Positive Attitude	1-5 points
(Maximum of 50 points)	