The USA Boxing National Championships and Junior Olympics are the premier events for USAB amateur boxers and in order to participate in those tournaments, boxers must advance via Qualifier events or Local & Regional tournaments.

Regional & Prep Opens are offered for boxers to gain experience and to also earn rankings points which can improve their seeding at National tournaments. Boxers are not required to earn their entry into Open events and are able to register for them directly, as long as they meet the requirements.

USA Boxing's High Performance Teams are determined based on the results of the Elite, Youth & Junior age divisions at the USA Boxing National Championships & Junior Open to be held in December.

For more information about this process, please refer to the High Performance documents on USABoxing.org under Forms & Documents or contact USA Boxing's High Performance department at hp@usaboxing.org.

The 2019 Western Elite Qualifier and Regional Open Championships will be the second, and direct, qualifying event for the Olympic Trials for the ELITE Division ONLY and an Open event for all other age divisions.

The 2019 Eastern Elite Qualifier in Columbus, Ohio will serve as the third Olympic Trials Qualifying event, and the 2019 Last Chance Qualifier (location TBD) will be the fourth, and last, qualifier for the 2020 Olympic Trials to take place in December 2019.

Elite Age Division Male/Female:

2019 USA Boxing 2020 Olympic Trials (to be held in December 2019) will not be an open registration tournament and will be limited to the 8 boxers per weight class who have qualified or been selected.

Elite division athletes, for the Olympic Weight Divisions, have four ways to qualify for the 2020 Olympic Trials:

1. 2018 Elite National Championships Champion & Runner Up
2. 2019 Western Elite Qualifier Champion & Runner Up
3. 2019 Eastern Elite Qualifier Champion & Runner Up
4. 2019 Last Chance Elite Qualifier Champion & Runner Up

Selection and Seeding of the Elite Athletes for the 2020 USA Boxing Olympic Trials is outlined in the USA Boxing Elite Athlete Selection Model, which is located at USABoxing.org under High Performance Documents.

Official's Code of Ethics For National Tournaments

Outlined below is the USA Boxing Official's Code of Ethics. I understand that my compliance with the Code is a requirement for my participation in a USA Boxing national event as an Official. An Official is defined as a referee, judge, timekeeper, computer tech, clerk, or weigh master. I also recognize that this Code does not establish a complete set of rules that prescribes every aspect of appropriate/inappropriate behavior.

1. I will act in a manner consistent with the spirit of fair play and responsible conduct. Neutrality is of the utmost concern.
2. I will comply 100% with the neutrality rule and not officiate any bout that involves a participant from my current or former Region(s). I must notify the Ring Captain of any conflict so that the next neutral official can take my place. The only person that is authorized to make an exception, and only if there is a shortage of officials, is the Ring Captain.
3. I will remove myself from working a bout if I'm assigned to work a bout where a conflict exists such that there is a bias or partiality to any of the participants, i.e., including, but not limited to being related to or having worked in a coaching/training capacity with any of the participants. We MUST attempt to avoid any situation where it might APPEAR that a boxer has an advantage by your involvement as an official on that bout.
4. If I am related to a boxer or if there is a boxer to whom I am very close that is competing in this event I must eliminate myself from officiating in this boxer's weight class.
5. I am here to work as an Official and only in the capacity of an Official. I will not work as a coach or as a second for the duration of this tournament.

I acknowledge that my failure to comply with the Official's Code of Ethics set forth in this document by USA Boxing may result in my immediate dismissal as an official from this event and that additional disciplinary actions may be applied against me for such inappropriate behavior.

I pledge to uphold the spirit of this Code, which offers a general guide to my conduct as a participant as an Official in this USA Boxing event.
