September 11, 2020

Dear USA Curling Athletes,

We hope that this email finds you safe and well. If you are planning to travel for any reason, we encourage you to first consider the recommendations and guidelines provided by your local health authorities and the CDC.

World Team rankings point list suspension extended

Earlier this week, the World Curling Federation (WCF) announced that the World Team Rankings point list suspension has been extended until November 30, 2020. The original suspension was scheduled to end on October 31, 2020, but due to international challenges surrounding COVID-19, the WCF extended the suspension. To read the full story, click here.

Athlete Town Hall

USA Curling will be hosting this month's town hall meeting on September 28. In this meeting, coaching still will provide updates as they pertain to the upcoming season. If you are unable to attend the meeting, it will be recorded and shared to the USA Curling COVID-19 resource page.
