Dear USA Curling Athletes,

We hope that this email finds you safe and well. If you are planning to travel for any reason, we encourage you to first consider the recommendations and guidelines provided by your local health authorities and the CDC.

Logo Launch

Earlier this week, USA Curling launched its new logo. The press release and launch video can be found here. We are grateful for the countless athletes, volunteers, ice makers, supporters, and fans who have elevated USA Curling to this point and inspired us to begin a new and exciting chapter. A chapter that is indicative of the unification of our organization and the honorable character that exists within. We hope that you recognize this as step forward and take pride in the organization that you work so tirelessly to represent.

Athlete Town Hall

USA Curling's National Coaching Staff hosted a Town Hall meeting on Monday, September 28. Unfortunately, due to technical difficulties, the meeting was unable to be recorded. In this meeting, staff discussed the ever-changing climate with COVID-19 and how they are collaborating with USOPC and TCO doctors to continue to evaluate the possibility of competition. Should you have any questions with what information was covered in this meeting, please contact Jessica Schultz (Jessica.Schultz@usacurling.org) or Phill Drobnick (phill.drobnick@usacurling.org).

Junior Men's Qualification

Today, USA Curling released the qualification procedures to determine the junior men's team that will be representing the United States at the 2021 World Junior Curling Championships. Teams who meet the criteria for competing in the qualification event (outlined here) must contact Jenny Biadasz (jenny.biadasz@usacurling.org) by October 8, 2020.
