October 30, 2020

Dear USA Curling Athletes,

We hope that this email finds you safe and well. If you are planning to travel for any reason, we encourage you to first consider the recommendations and guidelines provided by your local health authorities and the CDC.

Athlete Town Hall

If you missed October's Town Hall meeting that took place Monday (10/26), a recording can be viewed by clicking here.

Covid Precautions

After curling clubs have reported positive cases of Covid-19, it is recommended that individuals assess the "Return to Curl" procedures that are being enforced by their club before entering or utilizing the facility. After working directly with the affected clubs, the USCA reiterates the importance of mandating mask-wearing and continues to strongly discourage broomstacking. To read the USCA's full statement, please click here.

Southern Mixed Doubles

The organizing and host committee of the Southern Mixed Doubles 2020 Cashspiel confirmed that they are still planning on hosting the event December 29-31, 2020. Additionally, if you are seeking information on the event, click here or contact Steve McKee or Brady Gould.

US Open Mixed Doubles

Due to some teams dropping out, the US Open Mixed Doubles event is looking for two more teams to compete in the event scheduled for November 13-15, 2020. Should you, or anyone you know, be interested in competing in this event, please contact John Benton.
