Statement of Principles, Ethical Behavior, Non-Disclosure, and Conflict of Interest

All groups and persons who choose to serve United States Judo Inc., (dba USA Judo), whether as volunteers or paid employees, are held to the highest standards of conduct and are accountable for acts in violation of this agreement. As guardians and custodians of Olympic ideals they assume an obligation to subordinate individual interests to the interest of the Olympic movement. What may be considered acceptable conduct in some businesses may be inappropriate in Olympic service and in service to USA Judo.

Those who serve USA Judo must do so without personal gain, to avoid any institutional loss or embarrassment and to behave in such a way that the organization’s trust and public confidence are enhanced. It is important to avoid any real conflict of interest as well as to avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest. The organization has provisions in place to approve pre-disclosed contractual arrangements in appropriate situations.

While no set of guidelines can guarantee acceptable behavior, the principles which guide behavior in this area are disclosure, physical absence and non-participation in the decision making process where personal or family gain is a possibility, and a commitment to honor the confidentiality of organizational information. All conduct is founded on integrity. Any individual accepting the honor of serving USA JUDO must also accept these principles.
