

GIFTS AND ENTERTAINMENT POLICY OF USA RACQUETBALL, INC.

APPROVED 5/8/21

1. Purpose

USA Racquetball is committed to sustaining an ethical workplace free of conflicts of interest and perceived conflicts of interest. USA Racquetball therefore has adopted this Gifts and Entertainment Policy to provide instruction to USA Racquetball employees, board members, officers, committee members, task force members, hearing panel members, and volunteers regarding how to handle offers of gifts or other forms of entertainment from individuals or companies that do business with, or are interested in doing business with, USA Racquetball. Additionally, it provides instruction on USA Racquetball extending gifts to third parties.

This policy should not be considered in any way as an encouragement to make, solicit, or receive any type of gift or entertainment. Indeed, USA Racquetball employees, board members, officers, committee members, task force members, hearing panel members, and volunteers may not, under any circumstances, actively solicit any type of gift or entertainment. Further, USA Racquetball will not under any circumstances permit or authorize participation in any business gifts or entertainment that might be considered lavish, inappropriate or illegal.

2. Applicability of Policy

This Gifts and Entertainment Policy is applicable to all USA Racquetball employees, board members, officers, committee members, task force members, hearing panel members, contractors, and volunteers, as well as their spouses and immediate family members (“Affiliated Individuals”).

c. Limitations

Affiliated Individuals may never accept cash or financial instruments, such as checks or stocks. Under the guidelines set forth herein, Affiliated Individuals may accept gift certificates or gift cards.

4. Disclosure and Approval

All gifts or invitations falling under Section 3(A)(1), Section 3(A)(3), and Section 3(B)(2) above, and all invitations that involve the third party paying for the Affiliated Individual's travel and/or overnight accommodations, must be promptly reported to the Ethics Committee and CEO.

Where the gift or invitation is made to the CEO, the requisite disclosure must be made to the Ethics Committee. Prior to accepting invitations or gifts that include travel and/or overnight accommodations during business hours, written approval must be received from the CEO. In the case of the CEO's request for approval, such approval must be received from the Ethics Committee.

Any potential gifts or invitations extended that exceed the limits and/or parameters noted above must be disclosed to, and approved in advance and in writing by, the Ethics Committee or CEO, as appropriate, before they may be accepted.

In addition, the Ethics Committee and CEO may, in consultation and collaboration with the Affiliated Individual, require that any gift(s) be graciously returned, or not accepted, as the case may be, if the Ethics Committee and CEO believe such gift(s) are not proper and/or create an appearance of impropriety.

The Gift Disclosure form is attached.

5. Extending Business Courtesies

General Rules

There may be times when an Affiliated Individual wishes, as a business matter, to extend to a current or potential USA Racquetball business associate (i.e., an individual or company) a gift or an invitation to attend a social event (e.g., reception, meal, sporting event, or theatrical event) to further or develop a business relationship. In such instances, gifts may not exceed $100 in value per person per year, without the prior written approval of the CEO and/or the Ethics Committee.

Invitations to events must be reasonable and appropriate. Topics of a business nature must be discussed at the event, and the USA Racquetball employee or Board Member must be present. The cost associated with such an event should not exceed $100 per person/company per year, except with regard to sporting events and fundraising functions, without the prior written approval of the CEO. Moreover, such business entertainment with respect to any particular individual must be infrequent, which, as a general rule, means not more than four (4) times per year. Frequency beyond the foregoing must be pre-approved in writing by the CEO. To the extent the USA Racquetball employee or Board Member has knowledge of applicable restrictions by a recipient's organization on gifts and entertainment, the USA Racquetball employee or Board Member must undertake best efforts for all business entertainment and gifts to comport with the restrictions imposed by the recipient's organization.

USA Racquetball employees or Board members may give gift certificates within the limits set forth in this policy, but may never give cash or financial instruments, such as checks or stocks.

a. Development Division/Staff

USA Racquetball recognizes that the limits set forth in Section 5 may hamper the ability of the Development Division/Development Staff to perform their job functions. In light of this, the foregoing limits will not apply to the Development Division/Development Staff if the invitation or event is part of normal and reasonable job duties and the event is not lavish or unreasonable.

For the Development Division/Development Staff only, the cost of gifts and events for which no prior written approval is required is $600 per person per year. To the extent any gift or invitation exceeds that limitation, the USA Racquetball Development employees/staff must obtain the prior written approval from the CEO.

b. Government Employees

The giving of gifts to federal, state, and local government employees is governed by a complex set of rules that is typically agency-specific. Generally, the giving of gifts to government employees is very limited or prohibited. Before offering a gift, of any value, to a government employee, the USA Racquetball or Board member must receive the approval of the CEO in advance and in writing.

c. Disclosure And Approval

All gifts or invitations offered by an Affiliated Individual must be covered by the appropriate USA Racquetball budget and must be approved in advance by the appropriate USA Racquetball supervisor. All gifts or invitations extended that exceed the limits and/or parameters noted above must be disclosed to, and approved in advance and in writing by, the CEO before they may be offered.

d. USA Racquetball Point of Contact

Affiliated persons in need of further information or guidance in relation to this policy should contact USA Racquetball's Executive Director/CEO.
