I am at least 18 years of age. I have never competed in the USA Racquetball National Singles Championships.

The recipient of the John LoMonaco Memorial Grant:

- Must be at least 18 years of age.
- Must be a citizen of the United States.
- May not have previously competed in the USA Racquetball National Singles Championships.
- Will submit an application and write an essay no longer than 500 words expressing why he/she wants to attend and compete in the National Singles Championships.
- Will sign or e-sign an official copy of this application
- Will sign a USA Racquetball liability waiver as well as a release for use of his/her likeness in publications at USA Racquetball's discretion.
- Will write an article describing his/her experiences as a first-time National Singles player for possible publication in the USA Racquetball communications vehicles.
- Will provide USA Racquetball with a planned travel itinerary for review and approval
- Must accept these terms and conditions in a signed agreement

Covered expenses include: entry fee (two divisions), meals, up to five nights' lodging at a host hotel, coach airfare, ground transportation, and a VIP pass. The recipient will submit receipts to USA Racquetball for personal reimbursement not to exceed $2,000. Companion costs will be at the expense of the recipient or his/her companion.

The essay and application become the property of USA Racquetball and will not be returned.

Please send your completed form and essay to Barbara Pyle at bpyle@usra.org. The deadline for submission is March 30, 2016, with the recipient announcement on or before April 15, 2016.
