

Men's Roller Derby Team USA Roster Announced

USA Roller Sports and the National Team Coaching Staff are pleased to announce the players who will represent the United States of America as part of the Roller Derby Team USA, affiliated to the U.S. Olympic Committee and World Skate.

Among other important events, the members of the Men's Team USA will have the opportunity to represent the United States at the 2019 World Roller Games, a spectacular event gathering in one city the world championships of ten roller disciplines: artistic, speed, rink hockey, inline hockey, roller freestyle, skateboarding, inline freestyle, inline downhill, roller derby and inline alpine. The event, organized by World Skate, will be hosted by the city of Barcelona, Spain during the month of July and will be broadcasted on television and online. It will feature more than 4,500 athletes from more than 100 countries competing at several venues, including the city of Mollet de Valles, where the roller derby tournament will be hosted.

Please join us in congratulating the athletes that have been selected as part of the Men's Team USA:

- David Boaz
