

Team USA Has Its Sights Set on Barcelona

By Ricci Porter-Kmetz, USA Roller Sports Speed Advisor

The best inline speed skating athletes from across the nation took over Colorado Springs, Colorado for Team USA Trials!

At the completion of the rigorous, seven-day event at the United States Olympic Training Center and Pikes Peak International Raceway, an all-star lineup was named to represent their country at the 2019 World Roller Games in Barcelona, Spain.

Team USA Manager, Tony Cabral, had this to say following the Team selection, “On behalf of Kelly, Gypsy, and myself we would like to congratulate the athletes of Team USA 2019.

Each athlete’s hard work, grit, and determination earned them a spot to represent the United States at this year’s World Roller Games in Barcelona, Spain.

We are very excited for this year’s Team and look forward to some great racing and results in July.”
