

The OSP put David Golub and Angela Farniano, Levittown, NY, into second place, and their Free Dance kept them there. The team skated a series of moods as dramatically distinct as the pink and black in their costumes, and their unique performance won scores ranging from 92 to 95 for its technical merit and from 91 to 94 for artistic impression.

Janna Jensen, Federal Way, WA, took second place in World Class Ladies Singles, despite the fact that she had moved directly from Freshman competition into the World Class division.

Defending National and World Champions Mark Howard and Cindy Smith of Richmond, VA, came to Texas fresh from a gold medal performance at the National Sports Festival. In the compulsories, Howard and Smith glided away with the European Waltz and the Rocker Fox Trot. Next challenge was Original Set Pattern, and Howard/Smith's dancy, complex Paso Doble garnered the most points in that event, as well. Then the Free Dance. Howard and Smith took the floor, amid much cheering, and went from "America" to "Hernando's Hideaway" to "Somewhere in Time," and finished with music from a Russian folk dance. By the last strum of the balilaiskas, Howard and Smith had clinched the 1983 title.

Debbie Isenhour, Houston, TX, (shown here as a finalist in the Singles competition) successfully defended her World Class Figures title.

Being new kids on the block is never easy, and World Class Pairs is a pretty tough block. New teams like Kevin Kerwin and Jeanne Younglund, Dublin, CA, faced serious opposition in their bids for the top spot, and had to settle for fourth place, following Arishita/Jerue, Benson/Young and Hayduk/Hayduk.

Team will be the "home team" for the [unclear] Rogers Coliseum, Ft. Worth, TX.

Rick Monturo, Morris, IL, finished his program with customary flair to take third place in World Class Men's Singles.

John Arishita and Tammy Jerue, Dublin, CA, turned in a gold medal performance that included an "inverted overhead spin." Tammy does a lay back as John does a camel that brings his skate within inches of her face, as Tammy snaps her head back. The crowd always gasps. "I think that it's just frightening for people watching," said Tammy. It certainly was frightening for the team hoping to beat them. With content scores from 95 to 98 and manner of performance from 91 to 96, Arishita and Jerue celebrated their new title--National World Class Pairs champions.

Tammy Jerue, Sacramento, CA, took the gold in her first shot at the World Class Ladies title. She landed her double lutz-double loop-euler-double flip combination, followed by camels and doubles, and a double axel, a triple toe wally, a triple mapes and a triple salchow, all executed with strength and grace. Her content scores ranged from 93 to 96 and manner of performance between 90 and 95.

Scott Cohen, North Brunswick, NJ, proved himself quite capable of following McGuire's lead in World Class Men's Singles. After opening with a double axel into a spin sequence, Cohen landed his triple salchow triple mapes and triple toe wally, as well as his remaining jumps, including an unusual lutz with arms extended overhead.

The Responsive Figure Skates

Select your desired skating action in seconds with Snyder's extraordinary patented Figure Skate. The Figure Skate features an all-new, easy-to-adjust skating action to produce a change in tension almost instantaneously! Each click of the easily accessible ratchet is a $\frac{1}{8}$ " turn.

Standard equipment on the Figure Skate is the revolutionary Snyder/Fafnir Super-Bearing.

You can rely on the Figure Deluxe Skate for outstanding strength and stability because of the 10°-type, double-action design which places most of the skating action on the cushion.

You can get an exceptionally deep edge with the Figure Imperial because the 45°-type skating action takes place over the pivot pin. That means better loops and faster edge changes for you.

In Freshman Girls Singles, Patti Jefferson had third coming into the finals, but merely placing was not enough for her. She powered her way through her jumps and managed some excellent spins to garner ordinals of 1-1-1-1-1 and the Freshman Girls title.

Eric Anderson took the Primary Boys title with impressive footwork and very fast spins.

The 1983 SRSTA Teacher of the Year Award was given to Assistant National Meet Director Paul McNeil.

USAC/RS honored Jay Norcross, Jr. and Chuck Kurp with plaques of appreciation. USAC/RS Life Memberships were conferred upon Al Nichol and Marian McCormick (above with Marie Walker).

This year of living dangerously was also a year of skating beautifully, and will become a year of watching eagerly for the next seasons champions...and Championships. ■
