Chair Anne Cribbs called the meeting to order at 11:02 a.m. EST.

This is a Special Purpose Meeting convened for the special purpose of holding a vote, pursuant to Bylaw 7.13, to determine whether to remove Rajul Sheth from the Board, “for cause.”

3. Mr. Sheth had publicly stated his disagreement with decisions of the Board.
4. Mr. Sheth had used social media as a forum to state his disagreement with decisions of the Board.
5. Mr. Sheth had publicly criticized the USATT High Performance Program and its then-Director, Joerg Bitzigeio.

The Case against Removal

Mr. Sheth led the discussion. His primary points included:

1. No Board member had ever followed the Conflict notification procedures specified in Bylaw 16.3.

5. He has a right to disclose when the Board is allegedly violating USATT Bylaws.

Relevant documents are attached to these Minutes.

Note: Removal of a Board member pursuant to Bylaw 7.13 requires:

1. A duly noticed meeting of the Board,
2. An opportunity for the director to be heard by the Board, and
