Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of United States Taekwondo Union, Inc. as of December 31, 2004 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

United States Taekwondo Union, Inc. (the Corporation) is the national governing body for the sport of taekwondo, making it responsible for the conduct and administration of amateur taekwondo in the United States. The Corporation qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, accordingly, is not subject to federal income tax. The Corporation is not a private foundation. During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Corporation changed its state of incorporation from Ohio to Colorado.

Supplemental Cash Flow Disclosures

Cash flows from operating activities reflect interest paid of $6,960 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Depreciation

Furniture and equipment are recorded at cost as of the date of acquisition or fair value as of the date of receipt in the case of gifts. Depreciation is recorded for office and athletic equipment using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of five to seven years. Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 2004 was $24,385.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of the Corporation's checking and savings accounts.

The Corporation maintains its cash and cash equivalents in a commercial bank. In the unlikely event of a bank failure, the Corporation could suffer a loss to the extent its deposits exceed the respective bank's insurance limits.

Accounts Receivable

No allowance for doubtful accounts is considered necessary.

Compensated Absences

Employees of the Corporation earn a vested right to compensation for unused vacation. Accordingly, the Corporation has made an accrual for vacation compensation that employees have earned but not taken.

A. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES - Continued

Contributions

Gifts of cash and other assets are reported as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of donated assets. When a restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

Certain costs and expenses are allocated among the various programs and supporting service expenses based on salary and related expenses.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent liabilities, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

B. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The United States Olympic Committee (USOC) provides grants to the Corporation for sports development, international competition and team preparation. Total grants from the USOC for the year ended December 31, 2004 consist of the following project categories:
