Qualification Period for the 2019 World Championship Team

The time period in which to earn U.S. National Ranking points towards qualification to the 2019 World Championship Team (known as the qualification period) will be from the date of first publication of this selection procedure (September 18, 2018) until March 31, 2019 (the last event included will be the 2019 German Open).
Athletes who earn the highest number of U.S. National Ranking points during the qualification period in a specific weight division will be named to the World Championship Team in that respective weight division. In the case of a tie, the athlete with more Group II points in the U.S. National Ranking points will be nominated.

Second in the rankings from the qualification period will be the first alternate, third will be the second alternate, and so on, in that order.

In the case that one athlete is ranked number one in more than one weight division in the U.S. National Rankings, that athlete must choose which division they want to be named to for the 2019 World Taekwondo Championships by April 1, 2019 via email to the High Performance Department. In this case, the second ranked athlete in the division not chosen by the first ranked athlete will be nominated to the 2019 World Championship Team.

Points from any USA Taekwondo or World Taekwondo sanctioned events that occur during the qualification period will be used to calculate the U.S. National Ranking for consideration for the 2019 World Championships Team, and current standings will be published monthly on the USA Taekwondo website.

Points will be earned in accordance with U.S. National Rankings Bylaws – please see this link for a full explanation. https://www.teamusa.org/usa-taekwondo/v2-national-teams/tusah-us-national-rankings.

The 2019 World Championship Team will be announced after World Taekwondo April Rankings and subsequent USATKD National Rankings are posted. https://www.teamusa.org/USA-Taekwondo

Bonus Points

In order to reward and recognize those athletes who are demonstrably capable of beating the best in the world, bonus points are available. Defeating an athlete who is ranked in the Top 10 WT World Rankings at any G-Level event during the qualification period will result in bonus points added to the athlete’s rank in the U.S. National Ranking. Athletes will not receive bonus points for beating an athlete ranked in the Top 10 of a different weight division. In the case of Grand Prix Events or other competitions that use Olympic Weight divisions, an athlete can receive bonus points by defeating an athlete ranked in the Top 10 of either of the two combined World weight classes that make up the Olympic Division (if defeated athlete is ranked in the top 10 of both combined World Divisions, bonus points will be calculated based on their highest rank at time of defeat). Bonus points will be calculated based on the rank of the defeated athlete at the time of defeat as detailed below:
World Taekwondo Rank # of athlete at time of defeat:
#1 = 500 pts  #2 = 450 pts  #3 = 400 pts  #4 = 350 pts  #5 = 300 pts
#6 = 250 pts  #7 = 200 pts  #8 = 150 pts  #9 = 100 pts  #10 = 50 pt

In order to earn bonus points, an athlete must beat their opponent by points, superiority, or referee-stops contest (RSC). Wins by disqualification or opponent’s withdrawal will not earn bonus points.
