Here are items for you to consider as you establish a triathlon club.

➢ What is the mission and vision of your club?
➢ Register your club with USA Triathlon by clicking here.
➢ What age range are you targeting?
➢ How do you plan to involve parents if you will have youth members?
➢ Consider creating a survey for athletes to take prior to joining the club.
   - Do they have triathlon experience?
   - What equipment do they have?
     ▪ Swimming: goggles, swimsuit
     ▪ Biking: bike, helmet
     ▪ Running: proper running shoes
   - Do you have suggestions on local races?
➢ Remind athletes that not having certain equipment is not a barrier. Consider purchasing or having equipment donated to your club to get it started.
➢ Consider having a monthly club meeting for athletes with a timeline and agenda for them to follow.
➢ Create a club calendar that includes meetings, activities, and events.
➢ Are you a Certified USA Triathlon Coach or have you identified one to assist with the club?
   - USA Triathlon recommends using a Certified Coach for clubs.
➢ Have you identified a facility to use?
   - Many clubs use fitness centers, YMCAs, recreation centers, etc. as options.
➢ What will you establish for your membership fee?
   - It is suggested that you develop a budget and then try to match an affordable membership fee with it. Perhaps consider a discount for multiple family members?
➢ Do you have information on the USA Triathlon annual membership for your club members?
➢ What is your plan for recruiting volunteers, preparing for clinics, producing events, etc.?
➢ Will you develop a club code of conduct and by-laws?
   - It is suggested that you develop a code of conduct and by-laws for your club. This will ensure all members understand club expectations and how potential discipline will be handled.
