In order to be eligible to run and/or vote for the USOC's Athletes' Advisory Council (AAC) position, athletes must be international athletes, defined accordingly: the AAC representative and alternate must meet the eligibility requirements of having represented the United States in Olympics, Paralympics, Pan American Games, Parapan American Games, World Championships or an Operation Gold competition (as defined by the USOC) within the preceding ten (10) years as determined at the time of the election. All of the athletes meeting the criteria requirements shall comprise the electorate.
