REGIONAL VOLLEYBALL ASSOCIATIONS, THE REGIONAL COMMISSIONER AND THE RVA ASSEMBLY

The "Regional Volleyball Associations" (RVAs) of USAV are incorporated as legal entities and are each a Member Organization of USAV. The RVAs serve as the grassroots function for USAV and individually and collectively serve as a catalyst for USAV functions. The primary representative of the RVA is the Regional Commissioner, who is elected by the region for a term of office determined by the region, or the executive director, who is appointed by the regional board. The body of commissioners comprises the Regional Volleyball Association Assembly, which is chaired by the RVAA Chair. The Chair is elected by the Regional Assembly. An Administrative Council shall consist of the RVAA Chair, the RVAA Associate Chair and Assistant Chairs (if appointed) and the Zonal Chairs, who shall be elected by the RVAs of each Zone. The USAV-RVA BOD Representatives shall be non-voting members of the Administrative Council.

Within the regional structure, the commissioner is ultimately responsible for the total function of the RVA, with the assistance of the local organization leadership. This structure is usually comprised of volunteers or paid staff, each assigned to a specific task or project. Volunteers from throughout the region are essential for the conduct of regional programs. Generally, these consist of the development of camps, players, coaches and officials. It is accomplished through sanctioned competition, fellowship play, clinics, exhibitions and demonstrations.

Communication vehicles such as newsletters, handbooks, web sites and technical literature serve to keep regional members informed. An active cadre of volunteers is paramount if the RVA is to achieve total programming.

Collectively, the RVAs are entitled to two representatives on the USAV Board of Directors, each director being elected for a four-year term. Current RVA Directors are Jonathan Lee (EV, 2014) and Ken Cain (SO, 2016). The regions continue to provide a most comprehensive volleyball program on a year-round basis to all persons, regardless of age, gender or organization affiliation. Persons or organizations wishing to become involved with volleyball locally, or who are otherwise interested in seeking assistance in some aspect of volleyball in their local organization, are urged to contact their local Regional Commissioner.
