Team Selection Procedures 2020-2024

Purpose:

The purpose of this document is to provide athletes, coaches, and officials a step-by-step outline of qualifications to become a member of USA Weightlifting's International Squad: Team USA.

Philosophy on Team USA Selection:

USA Weightlifting has been given the responsibility by the United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee to govern the sport of Weightlifting in the United States of America. One of USA Weightlifting's duties is to put forth international teams to represent the USA.

USA Weightlifting takes the view that selection should reflect first and foremost the needs of Olympic qualification, followed by the desire for medals in international competition whilst allowing developing athletes to that level the opportunity for international experience.

Right to Amend:

USA Weightlifting may not under any circumstances adjust the selection procedure for a competition for which qualification competition has already commenced, unless a change in the action of the IWF, PAWF, Pan Am Sports, USOPC, IOC or FISU (or other applicable governing body with responsibility for the competition) causes an unavoidable change, agreed upon by a 70% or more super majority of both of the USA Weightlifting Board of Directors and USA Weightlifting Athlete Advisory Council.

USA Weightlifting may amend the selection process by a 70% or more super majority of the USA Weightlifting Board of Directors and USA Weightlifting Athlete Advisory Council, where there is at least two months before the qualification competitions commence for a given competition. Notice must be given, with reasoning, electronically to all potentially affected athletes and coaches in this event.

Step 1: Minimum Qualifications

To be considered for an international team you must meet the following minimum requirements:

- You must be a citizen of the United States of America.
Athletes must be citizens of the United States to be eligible to compete for Team USA. If dual citizenship is held, your sport nationality must be registered as the United States with the IWF or other applicable body, at the time of the final qualification event.

- You must have a valid United States of America Passport.
An Athlete must possess a US passport with an expiration date of a minimum of 6 months after the end of the competition, or the entry requirement of the host nation, whichever is greater. The reason for this is a majority of nations require 6 months after entry.

You must have been in the United States Anti-Doping (USADA)

Random Testing Pool (RTP) for 6 months.

If you have not made yourself available for USADA’s RTP, please do so immediately. USA Weightlifting has taken a stand for a doping free sport and we require all our international athletes to have been available for testing for a minimum 6 months prior to competing in any international competition (*RTP details can be found in Appendix C).

USA Weightlifting will make efforts to place athletes who meet the 81% of each age category total, two weeks after the National Event concerned, into the “Lift Clean RTP”, but the final responsibility is with the athlete to make themselves available 6 months ahead of the international competition. Please note that for new athletes, it is quite possible that the 81% will not be met more than 6 months ahead of the international competition.

You must be the correct age for the competition.

The IWF recognizes four (4) age groups:

- Youth: 13-17 years of age
- Junior: 15-20 years of age
- Senior: 15+ years of age
- Masters: 35+ years of age

All groups are calculated based on a participant’s age on December 31 of the year the competition takes place.

You must also comply with all requirements of the applicable governing body.

Note: USA Weightlifting Masters Committee, under the jurisdiction of the IWF Masters Committee guide selections for Masters will apply.

For Olympic Games and Youth Olympic Games, the relevant International Olympic Committee, US Olympic & Paralympic Committee and International Weightlifting Federation rules will apply.

For International University Sports Federation (FISU) governed events, the relevant FISU rules will apply.

For Pan American Games, US Olympic & Paralympic Committee, Pan Am Sports and International Weightlifting Federation rules will apply.

For International Weightlifting Federation governed events, International Weightlifting Federation rules will apply.

Background Check & SafeSport Training Requirement

All Athletes must Complete, upon selection to an international team, a USA Weightlifting background check via USA

Weightlifting's membership system. All athletes must also complete the latest version of US Center for SafeSport Training.

In the event if a red-light background check (generally a felony), the athlete will be called for a hearing before the USA Weightlifting Performance Oversight Committee to address issues the criminal offence may have on their participation.

The Performance Oversight Committee, voting unanimously only, has the right to remove an athlete from a team in the event of a red light background check if the committee, in its unanimous opinion, believes that selection may put at risk health, physical or mental, of a member of the delegation or if there is a risk of a sexual offence.

The committee may take professional advice from, but not exclusive to, the USA Weightlifting CEO, USA Weightlifting outside counsel, USOC Athlete Ombudsman and/or US Center for SafeSport in reaching its conclusion.

Minimum Standard Requirements

Athletes must reach a minimum of 81% of the Bronze medal in the bodyweight category of the previous IWF World Championship in their age group. Such a total must be their ranking total for the competition.

Minimum Standard - Elite Athlete Injury Waiver

A senior elite athlete is able to apply for an injury waiver for the purposes of Olympic qualification to appear in a Bronze Olympic Qualification event only. A waiver should be applied by contacting the CEO of USA Weightlifting, and be supported by medical documents. A waiver will be granted by USA Weightlifting if two MD qualified doctors who are participants in USA Weightlifting's Sports Medicine program with a specialism in Sports Medicine agree that the athlete was unable to participate in the qualification competitions for the Bronze competition. In this instance the last total made by the athlete will be used for the purposes of ranking, even if that is made outside of the qualification window.

Olympic Games Eligibility

After the first Period of Olympic Qualification, the Olympic Qualification events will rank first those with Olympic eligibility remaining, except for Youth & Junior athletes. Those without Olympic eligibility but who meet other requirements will be ranked after those individuals who do have Olympic eligibility.

Other Requirements

Athletes must be current members of USA Weightlifting and in good standing to compete.

Individuals who compete in Self-Funded events are liable for financial amounts spent on them, USA Weightlifting will give the benefit of any recoupable funds spent on the individual.

In the event an individual fails to pay, or agree and stick to a payment plan, before the commencement of an event, USA Weightlifting will require a deposit of at least 75% of anticipated costs before costs are incurred. In the event this is not received, USA Weightlifting will withdraw the individual from the Final

Entry of the USA.

An athlete must have a current USADA Athlete Advantage training, and a coach must have a current USADA Coaches Advantage training.

Step 2: Make a total for qualifying competitions.

Each international competition has designated qualifying competition and specific qualification periods to be used to determine qualification. Please check Appendix A or www.usaweighting.org for that specific information.

Each qualifying competition has a qualifying total that must be obtained in a USAW sanctioned event for an athlete to be eligible to compete. The certified official results must be on file with USAW. If you have met the qualifying total for the qualifying competition and meet all eligibility requirements, then you may enter to compete (Please see www.usaweighting.org for up-to-date qualifying totals for competitions). See Appendix B for minimum qualifications totals for self-funded competitions.

If a previously unidentified IWF sanctioned event arises (i.e. IWF Grand Prix) or the date of a specified competition changes to take place during the qualification period (6 months to the final qualification event set by USA Weightlifting), USAW will include verified results for making an international team if approved in advance by USA Weightlifting. If the event takes place during the qualification period for the specified international competition for the age group concerned, then the results will be considered.

Step 3: Achieving Ranking, and Selection to a Team.

USA Weightlifting will select by name at the end of the qualifying window for any event, the maximum number of athletes per gender permitted by the Organizing Committee, generally limited by the IWF rules to ten (10) athletes per gender.

USA Weightlifting will select by name at the end of the qualifying window for any event, the ten (10) athletes with the highest % of the NRS will be named to the team, to a maximum of two (2) per IWF bodyweight category.

A further 2 athletes who have the highest NRS scores not yet selected will be named as reserve athletes, one of which may be a “3rd” in the bodyweight category, and a second who will the highest NRS score regardless of Bodyweight category

If invites are declined, USA Weightlifting will proceed down in order of NRS score until either 10 athletes (or the maximum permitted for the competition, whichever is the greater) have been named, or alternatively total equivalent to the 81% total for the preceding year of the World Championship of the age group (Senior applies for University Worlds), per the IWF website on the final day of qualification, has been reached.

From 2021, the World University Championship ONLY will invite those who reached the 81% qualifying minimum first, and will invite to number 12 on the ranking list in the above manner described, ranked in NRS% order.

NRS is the Average of the Top 3 for Pan American and FISU events, and the Top 5 for IWF World level events for as many championships as is available at the time of selection (e.g. the 2021 World Championship will consider the 2018 and 2019 World Championship events). For the data score, please see the appendices.

There is a minimum standard for the (Snr) Pan Ams and (Snr) World Championship, which is calculated by using the 25th ranked individual in the Olympic Ranking for the bodyweight category (or bodyweight category above in a non-Olympic category), and the total that would generate that ROBI. This will be updated at the end of the Olympic Qualification, duplicate nations are not removed for this calculation.

For ad-hoc events, or events which do not have a history with new bodyweight categories or which are not regularly in the calendar, the World average will be used for the appropriate age group.

For youth and junior events, USA Weightlifting will proceed down as far as the 12th ranked individual at the start of the ranking list and no further, inclusive of the 3rd or lower in a given category, plus the reserves.

In the event an athlete scores in more than one bodyweight category, the highest individual NRS score will be considered, unless the athlete declares that they wish to use the lower NRS score.

In the event an athlete who qualifies wishes to change bodyweight category, they may do so provided there are not already TWO athletes selected at that category, and they may prove fitness at the same NRS % score at the new category (see Readiness). Alternatively, they may move at the Verification of Final Entries for the specific opportunity to medal, at the unanimous agreement of the CEO, Snr. Director for Sports Performance and Technical Director.

In the event that NRS scores are tied, the next highest NRS scores for the athletes are considered, with the athlete with the highest second NRS score in the qualifying period having the advantage.

A ranking list will be made available after each qualifying event at www.usaweightlifting.org.

For funding details, please see separate documentation.

In November of the preceding year, USA Weightlifting will publish a calendar of events the organization plans to attend in the following year based upon the IWF Calendar as at 1 November of the year. The calendar will be published together with qualifying events by a latest of 30 November of the year.

In the event that an international event is postponed after the selection of the team, by more than one month, the invite process will be re-commenced, such that the Anti-Doping rules of the IWF allow.

Step 4: Preparing for Competition

In preparation for competition, the athlete and the personal coach have an obligation to collaborate and cooperate with the Team USA high performance team, specifically including video of the athlete at least once per week on their heaviest training day of the week, on weight management, and on competition attempt management.

USA Weightlifting explicitly wish to work collaboratively, in a culture of trust, with both athletes and personal coaches.

Specifically, it is expected for those athletes who are expecting to require cutting weight to compete keep USA Weightlifting, particularly the medical doctor assigned to the competition, informed of their weight cut progression in order that USA Weightlifting can be aware of any medical support or sports nutrition needs in this circumstance.

A Competition Readiness Plan ought to be agreed upon by the USA Weightlifting sport performance staff, the personal coach and the athlete for the interim period prior to the international competition. The Competition Readiness Plan will include the training plan and readiness markers for competition. This plan is always an option for any athlete, and is not designed to be punitive, instead designed to promote the best competition result possible.

Where an athlete has previously competed and performed at under the performance that ranked them for the team (or the equivalent NRS score at a new category), there is an obligation to complete a formal competition readiness plan in writing. The athlete and personal coach will be made aware of this at the time of

The plan specifically will include upload of training video to the USA Weightlifting video system (CoachMe Plus) at least once per week – this measure is obligatory for all athletes, and failure to upload the may result in removal from the team, subject to an 80% vote of the Performance Oversight Committee.

The athlete has responsibility to achieve these agreed goals ahead of the competition. Failure to do so will result in removal from a team (via an 80% or higher vote of the Performance Oversight Committee), or the removal of funding for that team, in these circumstances.

Defining Readiness to Compete, Obligatory Expectations of the Athlete &

Personal Coach

1. Within 2 weeks of an athlete being named to a team, and in the first week USAW Staff establishes an individual's account in CoachMe+, or another official Athlete Management system, each top ten named individual, and the 2 alternates and any athlete ranked 3rd or lower in the category, must begin posting weekly training videos. These videos should be of your heaviest Snatch, Clean & Jerk, and Squat related performances of the week. Failure to post weekly videos, as soon as the system goes live, will be considered a failure to prove readiness.
2. 4 weeks prior to the competition, every team member, and alternate, must post videos of Snatch, and Clean & Jerk, with proof of date. The Snatch and Clean & Jerk must total 90% of the qualifying total made for the event. Each athlete will be provided with the 90% total they must hit for their competition bodyweight, and with a progression agreed our statistics consultant, listing 90% estimates for bodyweight up to 5 kilos above competition weight. At the same time, you must post photo, with date, showing your current bodyweight. Failure to post this 90%, will be considered a failure to prove readiness.
3. During the preparation period, anytime a sickness, or injury occurs, it must be reported to the Performance staff. If an injury or sickness is not reported, it may not be used as a reason to not achieve 90% later in the preparation period. Failure to report an injury as soon as it occurs, will be considered a readiness to compete.
4. In the event that an injury or sickness is reported, a local medical professional from the following categories; MD, DO, DPT must be consulted, and USAW performance staff and medical committee must be included into the process – USA Weightlifting will provide support for injured athletes. Failure to do so, will be considered a readiness to compete.
5. If an illness or injury does effect the ability to demonstrate 90% of best total 4 weeks out from the event, and it was reported immediately, and properly, that injury or illness may serve as a reason to not demonstrate 90%. This will only be the case, if the medical professional submits in writing that the injury/illness is clearing up, and will be alleviated in the next 7 days allowing for the 90%. Failure to do so, will be considered a readiness to compete.
6. The final heavy workout of the program must be posted to the athlete management system provided above, which unless otherwise agreed with the personal coach and the athlete should work up to the planned openers for the competition, which in turn ought to be discussed between the Snr Director Sports Performance and the Personal Coach. If this discussion does not occur, the openers shall be considered the highest opener taken by the athlete in any competition at the category (or adjusted to the new bodyweight category). Failure to do so, will be considered a readiness to compete.

Step 5: Personal Coach Participation & Coach Selection Policy

Personal coaches are always welcome and encouraged to travel with their athletes to the competition (this may be at the coach's own expense), provided they meet the necessary deadlines and requirements to join the delegation and obtain proper credentials. Access to the warm up room is provided for one (1) personal coach only, at the choice of the athlete, reflective of the most likely environment in a multi-sport games situation.

The choice of personal coach may not change after selection to the team, except in the instance of the suspension of membership in USA Weightlifting of the chosen personal coach.

Personal coach funding is defined by USA Weightlifting Funding System, elsewhere. In the event a coach self-funds to the IWF World Championships, IWF Junior World Championships, IWF Youth World Championships, Pan American Games or Snr. Pan American Championships, USA Weightlifting will cover the entry cost of the coach.

In the event that a coach self-funds to the IWF World Championship, IWF Junior World Championship, IWF Youth World Championship, Pan American (Snr) Championship or Pan American Games and wins a medal in the total, or wins a Gold Medal at the Pan American Youth or Pan American Junior the coach will be re-funded their self-funded element.

A personal coach must be:

- Sworn to be the coach of the athlete by the athlete, at the time of selection.
- A USA Weightlifting certified coach
- Hold a valid USA Weightlifting background check
- Hold current US Center for SafeSport education training proof
- Hold a current USADA Coaches Advantage certification

USA Weightlifting will provide either one or two independent coaches to the competition, where this competition has more than 6 US athletes. Where this is not the USA Weightlifting staff coaches, a coach will be assigned from those with International and Senior International coach ranking.

Generally, it is expected that such coaches have previously served as funded coaches for USA Weightlifting in competition of similar standing.

If no personal coaches are funded by any other means, the personal coach of the top athlete by NRS score, regardless of gender, will be funded, provided that the event has at least 6 athletes entered for the United States of America.

A personal coach must have been the personal coach for one calendar year before the competition in order to be funded, or from the beginning of the membership of the athlete (if the athlete has not been a member for a year).

If a personal coach has more than 3 athletes on a team (aggregated over both genders), USA Weightlifting will fund the coach in full.

Note: Though the Pan American Games is an IWF Silver event, selection and funding for athletes and coaches is a separate system in a separate document.

Step 6: Competition

In preparation for a competition, the Technical Director, National Teams and coaching staff (including the personal coach) will discuss the appropriate lift attempts to maximize placement for Team USA.

Performance Oversight Committee – The Performance Oversight Committee will be chaired by the CEO. It will have four additional members:

- (i) Two athlete representatives, one of each gender, who have represented the United States in Weightlifting in the last 10 years at the Pan American Games, the Olympic Games or the IWF World Championships, and who is selected by the USA Weightlifting Nominating & Governance Committee. To avoid the potential for a conflict of interest, it is strongly encouraged that the athlete representative to the Team Selection Committee be a retired athlete.
- (ii) Coach, appointed by the USA Weightlifting Coaching Committee from among their membership.
- (iii) The elected USOC Athlete Advisory Council (AAC) representative, or in the event of a conflict of interest (the AAC representative has a material interest in an athlete being selected), the alternate AAC representative.

The role of the Performance Oversight Committee is to be the hearing and oversight body for any clarifications required or disputes regarding selection. The Performance Oversight Committee is also the body with the jurisdiction to remove an athlete in the case of (i) Background check issues, (ii) Illness, (iii) Injury or (iv) Readiness to compete.

In the event that any member of the Performance Oversight Committee has a direct interest (same club, a coach of, an athlete of) a particular matter, they must recuse themselves from that discussion. A member of the POC must also recuse themselves in the event of being in the same bodyweight category (defined as having competed at a national event or higher within the last 12 months) as the individual being discussed, or the individual who may benefit from the exclusion of the athlete

Provisions for substitutions:

Injury: An athlete may be replaced if a physician appointed by the Performance Oversight Committee in consultation with the USA Weightlifting Sports Medicine Committee determines that he/she is unable to perform to his or her full potential, and where their performance would mean an alternate or if prior to the final entry deadline, another ranked athlete, would perform better or if competing risks injury complication. Refusal to be examined by the appointed doctor is grounds for replacement on the team.

Illness: An Athlete may be replaced if the physician appointed by the Performance Oversight Committee determines that he/she is unable to perform to his/her full potential due to an illness. Refusal to be examined by the appointed physician is grounds for replacement on the team.

Lack of Readiness: An athlete may be replaced if he/she has not satisfied the terms and conditions of his/her Competition Readiness Plan, such that the Performance Oversight Committee determines that another athlete will now out perform the athlete. If an individual has not completed a readiness plan, the consensus judgement of the high performance team will be used.

Removal: To remove an athlete, an 80% vote of the Performance Oversight Committee, in addition to the agreement of the USA Weightlifting Performance Staff, and a simple majority vote of the Board of Directors, that the removal is in the best interests of Team USA is required.

Funding – IWF World Championships (Senior), Pan American Championships (Senior) are fully funded and are protected, for other event funding see separate funding documentation.

Reasons for Removal – USAW reserves the right to remove any athlete that violates the Code of Conduct Policy, International Team Code of Conduct, USAW Code of Ethics, SafeSport, or who commits a violation of the applicable anti-doping rules.

Choice – An athlete has the choice to accept the invitation to join the international team or decline.

USAW further reserves the right to change these rules if the IWF or IOC changes any applicable rules. USAW will notify athletes and coaches promptly of any such changes.

Right of Amendment

USA Weightlifting has the right to amend these procedures provided the first qualification competition for a particular competition has not yet started. Such an amendment requires a 70% majority of both the USA Weightlifting Board of Directors & USA Weightlifting Athlete Advisory Council.

Appendix A: International Team Qualification Events and Periods

*Dates, event quotas and locations subject to change by the IWF and PAWF.

NOTE: For all silver, bronze and ad-hoc competitions (including those not mentioned below which later appear on the IWF calendar), USA Weightlifting will use a final closest to 2 months outside of the competition and include a further six (6) months of national and international qualification. Ranking will be an invitation to express interest as soon as the regulation is received from the Organizing Committee or IWF. Late entries are not permitted.

E.G. For a competition on November 28, the last qualification would be the American Open Series 3 as the final qualification event at least two months outside of the competition.
