

Customized Risk Programs For Associations

CoverWallet, an Aon company, provides a solution for associations to enable them to distribute customize insurance programs for their members. The technology solution provides a convenient, scalable, and easy-to-use online platform. We leverage expertise and technology to deliver the best solution on the market.

Why Work with CoverWallet, an Aon Company

We combine scalable distribution, insurance expertise, and digital experiences to enable associations to deliver the right insurance coverage at the best rates to members. It's simple, fast, and convenient with customized coverage from preferred markets.

A Co-Branded Experience

A co-branded online platform, dedicated entirely to your association.

Full End-to-End Digital Experience

A streamlined, convenient, and end-to-end program for members.

Customized Risk Package

Insurance packages designed with exactly the coverage members need.

Distribution at Scale

Quickly deliver an insurance program for thousands of members.

Dedicated Team of Experts

Specially trained experts on your members to assist with questions.

Digital Servicing Model

Manage everything online and track policies for members in one place.

We Work With Associations Across Dozens of Industries

Restaurants

Professional Services

Healthcare

Outsourced Services

Education & Childcare

Transportation & Logistics

Trade

And Others

To learn more, contact your Aon representative.