Long Track World Cup Qualifier on Oct. 14-16 at the Pettit National Ice Center

13 Olympians are set to race over three days of competition

KEARNS, Utah – US Speedskating will hold the Long Track Fall World Cup Qualifier on Oct. 14-16, at the Pettit National Ice Center in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Skaters will be competing to earn start positions on the US Speedskating Long Track Fall World Cup Team for the first four ISU World Cup events this fall:

World Cup #1 – Harbin, China           Nov. 11-13, 2016
World Cup #2 – Nagano, Japan           Nov. 18-20, 2016
World Cup #3 – Astana, Kazakhstan      Dec. 2-4, 2016
World Cup #4 – Heerenveen, Netherlands Dec. 9-11, 2016

The men’s competition includes two-time Olympic Champion Shani Davis (Chicago, Ill.) and two-time Olympian Mitch Whitmore (Waukesha, Wisc.), who reset the American Record in the 500-meter last November in Salt Lake City. Also scheduled to race is two-time Olympian and Olympic silver medalist Brian Hansen (Glenview, Ill.), along with 2014 Olympians Emery Lehman (Oak Park, Ill.) and Joey Mantia (Ocala, Fla.)

On the women’s side, six Olympians are expected to compete, including 2015-16 500-meter overall World Cup champion and two-time Olympian Heather Bergsma (High Point, N.C.). Joining Bergsma are 2014 Olympic teammates Kelly Gunther (Clinton Township, Mich.) and Sugar Todd (Omaha, Neb.).

Last year, U.S. Long Track speed skaters won 46 medals on the ISU World Cup circuit. The U.S. Team will look to build on that success in the coming season. A list of all registered skaters can be found here.
