Day 2 Highlights from ISU World Cup Nagoya and Inzell

Brittany Bowe and Heather Bergsma Finish 1-2 in the 1000m

US Speedskating World Cup teams continued with their respective competitions in Nagoya, Japan for the ISU World Cup Short Track Speed Skating and in Inzell, Germany for the ISU World Cup Speed Skating.

On the short track in Japan, USA saw Cole Krueger (Pittsburgh, Pa.) get out of the repechage rounds in the 1500m and make it into the finals, along with brother and U.S. teammate John-Henry Krueger (Pittsburgh, Pa.)

In Germany, Brittany Bowe (Ocala, Fla.) and Heather Bergsma (High Point, N.C.) continued their strong seasons by finishing first and second, respectively, in the 1000m.

Both ISU World Cups will be available on-demand through icenetwork.

Nagoya (Short Track) Highlights from Day 2 (Dec. 5)

- Cole Krueger used the 1500m repechage heats and repechage semifinals to advance into the World Cup sessions...he advanced to the B Finals but was penalized and did not record a time.
- John-Henry Krueger finished second in the 1500m Heat 2 semifinal to advance into the finals...in the finals, he received a penalty.
- Skating in the first heat of the men's 5000m semifinal, the U.S. men's relay team (C. Krueger, Keith Carroll Jr., J.H. Krueger, Chris Creveling) finished third and will skate in the B Finals on Sunday.

Inzell (Long Track) Highlights from Day 2 (Dec. 5)

- Brittany Bowe captured the 1000m gold with a skate of 1:14.01...she is the current world record holder in the distance, skating a 1:12.18 on Nov. 22 in Salt Lake City.
- It was Bowe's second consecutive win in the 1000m, as she has medaled in the distance in each World Cup (two gold, one silver)...she is the current distance leader in the 1000m at 280 points.
- Heather Bergsma finished just behind Bowe in 1:14.52 for the silver medal and her second podium of World Cup Inzell...at 250 cumulative points in the distance, she ranks second.
- Joey Mantia just missed the podium in the men's 1000m, finishing fourth in 1:08.81 (.21 behind third place).

The final day of skating in Nagoya, Japan begins at 9:40 a.m. local time on Sunday (appx. 5:40 p.m. MT Saturday). World Cup Inzell concludes on Sunday with the 1500m, 500m (2) and the Mass Start.
