Athlete A. Sample

Sample Text;

“My name is Mark Sample and I am an accomplished Junior Olympian chasing my dreams towards the big stage. I am currently working as a youth coach at Sample High School while training at a local facility (name the gym or location if possible). I have aspirations of bringing my (Track & Field) brand worldwide and am just beginning that journey.

Continue by explaining where you are and where you are going, the journey ahead is your focus and what is behind you is merely a stepping stone.

Objectives

This is the box where we will be defining our brand identity, a distinct attitude/persona. Think about how you want your brand to be perceived in the market and make this paragraph a value statement that contains a bit of your personal story. Creating a lasting memory that a reader associates with your identity can go a long way. (Discussed more on the instructions page)

In this second section we can dive further in to your future goals: Where do you want to be in the next year? Expand, where do you want to be in 5 years?

Competitive Excellence

College Track & Field (2009-2013)

Sample Text; Use this section to review accomplishments and events that you are proud to have participated in.

“Ex: While at the University of California I was a Senior Captain of the heroic men’s 4x100 relay team that set a new Pac 12 record time at the State Championships.”
