FIH Hockey World League Semifinals
 Johannesburg, South Africa

Final
 July 23, 2017

USWNT  0-1  GERMANY
 00:02:00

Start the game with a USA Powerplay Challenge, complete two in a row to be awarded a goal

- Germany took the lead in the 38th minute through a field goal by Camille Nobis.
- With 2 minutes to play, Amelie Wortmann was sent off for the second time leaving Germany a player down with a 1-0 lead to defend and USA was awarded a penalty stroke. Taylor West stepped up to take it...
- USA: Can you convert the Powerplay Challenge under pressure to level the score? And, can you snag two goals and win the Final in regulation?
- Germany: How will you play with one less player if USA scores? And if they don't?

FIH Champions Trophy
 London, England

Bronze Medal Game
 June 26, 2016

USWNT  0-2  AUSTRALIA
 00:05:00

 Start the game with Australia in possession in USA's half
 If USA can get within one goal (e.g. 1-2), then Australia must play a player down
 If USA ties the game, then go straight to shootouts using a Powerplay Challenge

- Australia scored in the first and third quarters to put USA in an 0-2 hole. Mariah Williams found the back of the net from open play first before Grace Stewart added a second to double the Hockeyroos' advantage.
- USA: Get one goal and you have foot hold in this game. Can you finish the job?
- Australia: The next goal is critical. Can you keep USA at arms length?

USWNT  1-2  AUSTRALIA
 00:07:00

Start the game with Australia in possession in their own half
 There are 15,000 fans in the Kyocera Stadium and you cannot hear - play silent hockey
 If it's tied, go to shootouts. USA has missed their first attempt. Play from there.

- Kellie White put Australia ahead just after halftime before Kelsey Kolojejchick leveled the game for USA.
- Australia would take the lead in the final quarter on a penalty corner goal by Anna Flanagan
- USA: The World Cup Final is close. Can you at least take it to shootouts?
- Australia: A lot can happen in 7 minutes. How will you play out the game?

FIH Hockey World League Round 2
 Tacarigua, Trinidad & Tobago

Quarterfinal
 March 30, 2017

Start the game with a USA possession in their own half

- Trinidad & Tobago got on the board in the 23rd minute off a penalty corner by Mickell Pierre.
- After Ruben van Dam was issued a yellow card for USA, the host nation added a second goal from open play in the 58th minute.
- USA: A player and two goals down. Can you do what Michael Barminski and Pat Harris did and find two goals to take it to a shootout?
- Trinidad & Tobago: One foot in on the way to the semifinal but can you keep your head in the moment?

FIH Series Finals
 Bhubaneswar, India

Pool Play
 June 10, 2019

Start the game with a Powerplay Challenge. Winner starts with possession in their own half. If the game ends in a tie, then USA wins (top the pool).

- USA makes it 1-0 in the 41st minute on a goal from Deegan Huisman.
- Japan responded 4 minutes later through Kenta Tanaka before Huisman snagged his second in the 51st minute to put USA in the driving seat.
- With 3 minutes to play Kei Kaeppler is issued a yellow card and USA are down a player...
- USA: A player down but still leading. Can you close out the game to top the pool?
- Japan: A tie isn't enough for you. What will you do to find two goals?

Pan American Games
 Lima, Peru

Bronze Medal Game
 August 10, 2019

Start the game with a Chile Powerplay Challenge, complete two in a row to be awarded a goal

- USA roared to an early lead thanks to a goal by Deegan Huisman.
- Midway through the third quarter it was 2-0 as Aki Kaeppler converted a penalty corner.
- With 8 minutes to play, Chile is awarded a penalty corner of their own...
- USA: What's your mission? Does a goal for Chile change anything?
- Chile: Focus on the now and convert the Powerplay Challenge and you are back in the game. How will you play if you make it 2-1? What changes if you are still two goals behind?

Pan American Cup
 Lancaster, Pennsylvania

Pool Play
 August 8, 2017

Start the game with USA possession in their own half
 If USA scores (4-1) then Chile must play a player down for the rest of the game

- In a must win game which would see the winner face Canada in the Semifinals, Deegan Huisman scored early for USA before Alex Grassi made it 2-0.
- Aki Kaeppler added a third in the 19th minute but Chile put one back through Pablo Purcell with 10 minutes to play.
- USA: Score and you put the game out of reach. Do you need to? How could you play?
- Chile: You need to score but if you let USA get another the task gets even harder.
