Athlete Eligibility

In order to participate in the TORONTO 2015 Pan American Games, each athlete must abide by the rules as set by the PASO as well as the rules of the corresponding International Federation, and must be registered by his/her NOC.

All athletes must be at least 15 years old on December 31, 2015.

Athletes must have signed and submitted the Athlete Eligibility Condition Form.

Qualification System

A total of 10 NOCs will compete in each event at the TORONTO 2015 Pan American Games. Nine NOCs will qualify in each event while Canada, the Host Country, will automatically qualify one athlete for each event.

NOCs will qualify and decide which athlete will participate in each weight division.

A tiebreaker system will be realized according to the highest sum of points from 2012, 2013 and 2014 Pan American Championships, and the highest sum of points from the 2013 and 2014 Pan American Cup.

NOCs will be ranked according to the Pan American rankings, which will be based on the total points accumulated at the following events:

Event	Location	Date
2012 Senior Pan American Championship	Montreal, Canada	April 26–29, 2012
2013 Senior Pan American Championship	San Jose, Costa Rica	April 18–19, 2013
2013 Pan American Cup	San Jose, Costa Rica	April 20, 2013
2014 Senior Pan American Championship	Guayaquil, Ecuador	April 24–26, 2014
2014 Pan American Cup	Bridgetown, Barbados	October 4, 2014
2015 Senior Pan American Championship	Edmonton, Canada	April 23–25, 2015

For each event, NOCs and their athletes will accumulate points based on the following scoring system:
