USA Artistic Swimming is proud to host a joint 2020 All-Star Camp & Coaches College at the Spire Institute in Geneva, Ohio. Only athletes who would have advanced to Phase 3 of Age Group National Team Trials are invited to the All-Star Camp. Any and all Coaches are invited to Coaches College, which will once again be divided into Novice/Intermediate & Age Group Coaches.

We are excited to welcome our National Team Coaches: Andrea Fuentes – Head Coach of Senior National Team, Megan Azebu – 13-15 National Team Head Coach, Laura Mase – 12&U National Team Head Coach, Camille Albrecht – 12&U National Team Assistant Coach and Bill May – World Champion in the Mixed Duet.

This year’s camp experience will focus on Artistic Swimming routine skills and how to take everything you do to the next level! The top 12 - 20 athletes who will be 13-15 years old in 2021, and chosen by the coaches, will be invited to a winter camp in December in Northern California. (Subject to change based on Covid restrictions)

Location
The Spire Institute
5201 Spire Circle
Geneva, OH 44041
Click HERE for Spire Reopening Guidelines

Date
November 6th – 8th, 2020
(Arrival evening 11/5, Departure afternoon 11/8)
Event will start at 8:30 am on Friday,
ending at 12:30 pm on Sunday.
Full schedule provided upon arrival.

Airport
Cleveland, OH (CLE)
Transportation will not be provided to/from CLE airport.
Housing
Red Roof Inn
1860 Austinburg Road
Austinburg, OH 44010

Housing at the Red Roof Inn is included in the cost of camp. There will be 2 individuals per room. Participants are welcome to make other arrangements for housing, but the cost will not be covered.

Meals
Meals will be offered starting with dinner on Thursday night and going through breakfast on Sunday morning. All meals will be at the Spire Institute. Upon registration you will be asked for any specific food requirements.

Registration
- For all individuals staying at provided housing (above) - registration cost includes all meals, housing, facility and presenters.
- For all individuals not staying at provided housing (above) – registration cost includes all meals, facility and presenters.
- See dates & deadlines for registration below – registration is currently open!

Important Dates
- Registration – Red Roof Inn $350.00 from September 1\(^{st}\) – October 15\(^{th}\)
- Registration – Other Housing $250.00 from September 15\(^{th}\) – October 15\(^{th}\)
- Late Registration – Red Roof Inn $400.00 from October 16\(^{th}\) – November 1\(^{st}\)
- Late Registration – Other Housing $300.00 from October 16\(^{th}\) – November 1\(^{st}\)
- No registrations accepted after November 1\(^{st}\)
- Cancellations – full refund for any cancellation before October 15\(^{th}\), 50% refund for cancellations between October 16\(^{th}\) – October 25\(^{th}\), no refund for any cancellations after October 26\(^{th}\).

Tentative schedule
The schedule will be different for all coach levels and age group athletes, and will be provided on-site.

Other things to do
For all of the parents who may be traveling with your athletes below are some suggestions for activities in your spare time:
- There are many wineries in the Geneva area.
- Cleveland Museum of Art
- Grammy Museum – Cleveland
- Rock and Roll Hall of Fame – Cleveland
- West Side Market - Cleveland
CLINICIAN BIOGRAPHIES

ANDREA FUENTES
Andrea started synchro at 9 years old after playing several other sports (figure skating and gymnastics). She moved to the Catalan training center at 13 and then the Senior National Team at aged 16. Andrea participated in 3 Olympics (Athens, Beijing and London). She won 2 Silver medals in Beijing, one Silver in duet and 1 Bronze in team in London 2012. Andrea is the most decorated athlete to date in Spanish history in the Olympics.

She won 16 medals at World Championships in Montreal 2005, in Melbourne 2007, in Rome 2009 and in Shanghai 2011. She has also 16 medals at European Championships from 2006 to 2011. She retired in 2013 and started coaching in Spain and helping other countries as well. As a synchronized swimmer, Andrea was know for her technical abilities, her hard work, determination and unusual style.

Andrea is now the USA Senior National Team Head Coach and lives in California with her husband and 2 children. She also speaks 5 languages fluently (English, French, Catalan, Italian and Spanish). She graduated from the Pure Raw Academy in NY and has a minor in Sociology.

BILL MAY
Bill May began his synchronized swimming career in Syracuse, New York with the Syracuse Synchro Cats, coached by Dee O'Hara and later Laurie Byron and the Oswego Lakettes. At the age of 16 Bill moved to Santa Clara to train with the world renowned Santa Clara Aquamaids Synchronized Swimming Club run by Olympic Coach, Chris Carver. As a member of the Santa Clara Aquamaids Bill was the first male to win a National and international title in the sport. He is a trailblazer in the sport of synchronized swimming paving the way for other male synchronized swimmers to get involved in the sport and compete at major international competitions.

In 2015, alongside his duet partner, Bill May, brought home the gold from the 2015 World Championships in the inaugural Mixed Duet event, in Kazan, Russia. Together, they made history winning the Technical Mixed Duet. Bill was also awarded a silver medal in Kazan. Bill has competed at every world championships since, and won 2 bronze medals.

Currently, performs with Cirque Du Soleil's O, and has collaborated with the Nevada Ballet, One Night for One Drop and various performance companies throughout the world.

Bill also gives back to the sport through coaching younger athletes all the way up to Olympic Teams.
MEGAN AZEBU
Megan Azebu was named Head Coach of the Stanford Synchronized Swim Team in 2018. She joined the Stanford program in September of 2012, serving as an assistant to Sara Lowe. Azebu helped with all aspects of the program since 2012 and has been instrumental in its success, as the Cardinal claimed Collegiate National Championships in 2013 and 2016, runner-up finishes in 2017, 2018 & 2019, and third-place showings in 2014 and 2015.

Azebu was selected head coach of the 2018, 2019 & 2020 13-15 National Teams. She previously served as an Assistant Coach for the 2017 and 2016 13-15 National Teams, as well as the Assistant Coach for the 2014 & 2015 12&U National Teams.

A 2012 graduate of Santa Clara, Azebu came to Stanford after coaching the Santa Clara Aquamaids for five years. Megan also swam for the Aquamaids for seven years, starting with the program at age 11.

Azebu earned a degree in psychology and holds a minor in economics. A native of San Jose, she now resides in Campbell, California.

LAURA MASE
Laura has been involved in synchronized swimming since 1993. As a swimmer, Laura swam for the New Canaan YMCA Aquianas from 1993-2001 earning some of first national titles for the club, then for the University of Richmond from 2001-2005 where she earned a BA in Communications and Elementary Education. From 2005-2008, Laura worked as the Education Director for United States Synchronized Swimming. She attended graduate school at New York University from 2008-2011, where she received her MS in Communicative Sciences and Disorders. Laura works full time as a Speech-Language Pathologist for Stamford Public Schools and she has been back with the Aquianas as an assistant coach since 2008. She has been the head coach for the 13-15 A team since 2011, placing as high as 3rd place at both 13-15 Nationals and JOS. Laura has coached athletes to national teams and although she is a part-time coach she devotes much of her time to her coaching career and has a great passion for the sport.
CAMILLE ALBRECHT

Camille did artistic swimming for 14 years. She competed as a member of the Tampa Bay SynchRays and placed top 10 in many National meets including placing 4th at US Open in 2007 and 2nd at Age Group Nationals in 2008. In 2009 Camille was a part of the inaugural cruise on The Oasis of the Sea where she performed as a dancer and Synchronized swimmer in the first ever Aqua Show at sea: The Oasis of Dreams. After completing her contract on the ship, she returned to Tampa YMCA Synchro where she had volunteered as a coach in her senior year of high school. She coached under Coach Laura Kummer for 4 years. In October of 2013 Camille took over as head coach. Since then she has coached multiple swimmers to qualify and swim at US Nationals and Junior Olympics where swimmers have placed in finals. Camille has also coached 2 swimmers to the 12-U National Team. Other than coaching Camille works part time for the organization Fellowship of Christian Athletes, swims masters synchro with Team Florida, teaches swim lessons, dances and teaches ballet, cycles, runs, and enjoys taking yoga whenever she finds the time!